In the business since 1901, Daubner is probably the busiest pastry shop in Budapest, despite its location outside the city center. They make all kinds of desserts, cakes, parfaits, cookies and traditional pastries, like pogácsa, a Hungarian biscuit and bejgli, a pastry with poppy seed or walnut filling. In the summer, Daubner's signature ice creams make the lines queuing outside the doors even ...

This book really helped us find great things to do on our trip. The recommendations were all top notch. We attended a festival recommended in the book, found great kayaking spots with surprisingly few tourists, and found parking in Quebec City that saved us about $30 a day from what we almost paid elsewhere.
