A Eurasian is a person of mixed Asian and European ancestry. Eurasians include people with ancestry from anywhere in Europe and anywhere in Asia.. The term was originally coined in 19th-century British India to identify a person born to (usually) a British father and an Indian mother. These mixed offspring were later called Anglo-Indians. In addition to British many were also of mixed ...

This is Tim Bowen's response:. This is a very common problem. Most, if not all, language classes contain students of mixed abilities. This happens for a number of reasons, but mainly because of different learning styles, different learning speeds, variations in motivation and, very frequently, as a result of logistical decisions.
